THEY'RE OFF AT PIMLICO

Racing at Popular Maryland Course Begins Auspiciously.

Champlain and Mainmast Win the Principal Contests of Inaugural Program.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 1.—Racing was ushered in at Pimlico this afternoon under ideal conditions. Midsummer weather prevailed and a large crowd was on hand to witness the running of the inaugural program. Racing was of a spirited nature and several of the winners were home first only after hard drives and vigorous riding.

No stake feature adorned the program, but much interest was centered in the running of the Wicomico Purse, for three-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, in which some Derby and Preakness candidates were among the starters. J. S. Cosden's Good Times, on the strength of recent private trials, was installed the choice. The start was a good one. Champlain and Caretaker were away together and set a fast pace for the others to follow, while Oil Man and Good Times raced in close formation, with Trevelyan bringing up the rear. Entering the stretch Champlain shook off Caretaker and drew away into a short lead. Caretaker hung on with splendid courage and only gave way to Oil Man in the final sixteenth. The latter finished resolutely. Good Times was well up early, but sulked throughout the race and finished last. Trevelyan closed a big gap.

The Merchants' Handicap at a mile shared with the three-year-old race the attention of the big crowd. It marked the initial appearance for the year of J. K. L. Ross' crack colt Baby Grand, which, though racing well and close up throughout, had to lower his colors to E. F. Whitney's speedy Mainmast. The latter led all the way and was never in danger. Incidentally it was the second success of the afternoon for the winner's owner, Carmandale having carried his colors to victory in the third race.

FIRST TO TALL TIMBER.

R. T. Wilson's Tall Timber was winner of the opening dash of the afternoon at a half mile in an easy manner from Windigo and Frank G. The winner ran the distance in 47⅗, which establishes a new track record, clipping three-fifths off the old mark held jointly by Careful and Cresson. The winner was ridden by jockey Butwell and was the popular choice in the speculation.

J. W. Bean's Peccant was the winner of the Inaugural Steeplechase over the two-mile course from Flying Scout and Sobrigade. The race, as a spectacle, was one of the best exhibited this spring, the field completing the course without any mishaps.

Edward F. Whitney's Carmandale was returned winner of the third race of the day, a dash of three-quarters of a mile, after a hard drive with Mavourneen and Pride of India. The start found Brilliant Ray away in front, closely pursued by Carmandale, with the remainder of the field racing in close formation. Carmandale went to the front after passing the half-mile post and saved ground all the way. Mavourneen began slowly and was forced to race around the outside of the field, while Pride of India was a forward contender on the inside. Carmandale tired near the finish, but gamely held Mavourneen and Pride of India safe.

LADY BOSS ALL THE WAY.

Lady Boss, ridden by jockey Thomas, beat a small band of two-year-olds in a decisive manner in the running of the fourth race, at four and a half furlongs. Be Trueman took second place and Lank third. The winner dominated the running from the start and was under restraint through the final quarter.

Henry McDaniel has transferred the J. K. L. Ross stable to Pimlico. The division quartered at the Ross farm at Laurel will be shipped to Woodbine Park, Toronto, during the Pimlico meeting.

The Quincy Stable, under the care of trainer J. Fitzsimmons, arrived at Pimlico from New York yesterday.

Benjamin Beach has taken over the engagement books of jockeys J. Rowan and E. Harbourne for the Canadian circuit.

James F. O'Hara, manager of the Bowie track, was a visitor this afternoon.

Willie Shea announced this afternoon that he would ship his two-year-olds to Canada at the conclusion of the Jamaica meeting, to be campaigned over the major tracks in the Dominion.

Jockey Albert Johnson will ride the first two days here and leave for New York to report to trainer Eugene Wayland.

Steeplechase jockey Charles Mergler was

RICHARD CROKER'S CAREER

Brief Sketch of "Boss" of Tammany and His Ventures on the Turf.

DUBLIN, Ireland, May 1.—The American flag, its folds heavy with moisture, droops at half mast above the tower of Glencairn, that granite castle ten miles south of Dublin which Richard Croker built to shelter his declining days on the isle of his birth.

Within, enshrouded, his body lies in his room, overlooking the gallop where the performances of as fleet a stable as any man should wish warmed their owner's heart.

Friday it will be laid to rest under the old sod, within a mausoleum with crypts for two, not more than a stone's throw from the mansion and built among the rocks beside a shaded pool. Not far away, in a simpler resting place, lies the bones of Orby, whose winning the Derby in 1907 brought more satisfaction to Dick Croker than any personal political achievement.

Full of years, honors and troubles, Richard Croker has paid the last and greatest debt and gone away. Time was when the dead man was a dominating figure in the troubled field of New York City and state politics. As "boss" of Tammany his rule of the city was absolute. He was born at Black Rock, Ireland, November 24, 1843. His grandfather, Major Henry Croker, was inspector-general in the British army, one of his uncles was a member of parliament, and another was a captain in the British army and a governor of Bermuda. His father brought him to this country when but three years of age. He served in General Sickles' brigade during the Civil War, also in the tenth New York Engineers. Entering politics he attracted the favorable notice of John Kelly and with his potent backing was elected alderman in 1867, again in 1869 and again in 1883. In the same year he was appointed fire commissioner and in 1889-90 was city chamberlain. He fought the Tweed ring and then became the head of Tammany.

Croker had the bred-in-the-bone Irish liking for horses and horse racing and embarked in the sport as soon as he was able. He owned and raced a number of horses, of which one was a real smasher. This was the colt Dobbins, a son of the Hermit sire Mr. Pickwick and the magnificent mare Thora. When both were two-year-olds Dobbins was a sturdy rival of the great Domino. A match race between the pair at Sheepshead Bay, August 31, 1893, was provocative of vast excitement and resulted in a dead heat, so there could have been no great difference between the pair.

The urge to go back to the "ould sod" had been pulling in Croker's mentality so long that in 1894 he took his horses, his family and his money and moved to Ireland and bought the fine Glencairn estate near Dublin. As a well-appointed stud farm he made it a model. He installed Dobbins at its head with no striking results. But among the horses he took to Ireland was a son of Emperor of Norfolk and Clara D., by Glenelg, which "Lucky" Baldwin had raced successfully under the name of Rey del Caredes. Mr. Croker changed his name to Americus, and after winning a number of races in England with him, put him in the stud, where he was highly successful in begetting extremely speedy racers. But better than this, he also took over the Hanover mare Rhoda B. In 1904 she foaled a chestnut colt by Orme, and in 1907 this colt gave him the proudest day of his life when he won the Epsom Derby and made the name of Orby famous throughout the turf world. Next Rhoda B. gave him the exquisite filly Rhodora, with which he won the One Thousand Guineas and many other stake races. Orby in his turn was grandly successful in the stud, his son Grand Parade winning the Epsom Derby, and his wonderfully speedy daughter Diadem including the One Thousand Guineas among her many brilliant triumphs. They raced for others than Croker, but that detracted little from his pride in their successes.

Among his friends and associates Mr. Croker was not given to voluble speech, playing the part of a listener from whom little that was said escaped. But on occasions he could express himself forcibly and with terse simplicity.

MORVICH WORKS FAST MILE

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 1.—Benjamin Block's champion, Morvich, favorite for the Kentucky Derby, worked a fast mile in 1:40⅘ at Jamaica Sunday morning before a large and enthusiastic crowd of admirers. He ran well throughout and finished in whirlwind fashion, running the last quarter in 24⅘ seconds. The fractional time of the gallop is as follows: 24⅘, 37, 49⅘, 1:02⅕, 1:15⅘, 1:28, 1:40⅘.

PARI-MUTUEL INVESTOR DEAD

PARIS, France, April 20.—Joseph Oller, inventor of the pari-mutuel machine, died here today following a short illness. The inventor lived to see his invention accepted as the standard betting method in many quarters of the globe.

KING'S PLATE PROSPECTS

Corenzio Rules Favorite for Big Canadian Stake Feature to Be Run at Woodbine Park.

TORONTO, Ont., May 1.—Three weeks from last Saturday the sixty-third King's Plate will be run at Woodbine Park. This year, in addition to the fifty guineas, the gift of King George V., there will be $10,000 added by the Ontario Jockey Club.

Entries closed on March 15, with Forty-four nominations. The owner of the winner will receive the guineas, stakes and $7,000; the second horse $1,500, and the third horse $1,000. The breeder of the winner will receive $500.

The favorite for the race this year is the Brookdale Stable's Corenzio, which has grown and broadened out during the winter, and is now fully 200 pounds heavier than he was last year. Corenzio looks like a real champion, and his racing last year showed that he has speed, courage and endurance.

Corenzio's stablemate, Paddle, is another good three-year-old and will be a good second string for the Brookdale Stable.

Herendesy, last year's King's Plate winner, is again training soundly and will be seen under colors at Woodbine Park. He will be at Woodbine May 6, when the Brookdale Stable will be shipped from Barrie.

SHOULDER ARMS MUCH IMPROVED.

George M. Hendrie's Shoulder Arms is also well thought of. He has improved wonderfully since last year, and trainer John Nixon makes no secret of the high regard in which he holds the Hendrie candidate. Orient Bay, another four-year-old, is the second string for the stable.

Mrs. L. A. Livingston's Moll Cutpurse is training well at Cobourg, and this four-year-old filly has had plenty of racing experience.

J. H. McColl's Barnabas, a five-year-old maiden, has shown well in his gallops at Cobourg, where he has been working with the Livingston horses, and he is a sure starter in the big race.

The Seagram Stable's best candidate is said to be Impersonator, a smart three-year-old, with Galbally the next choice.

The Brenner pair, Royal Gift and Puff Ball, are in excellent condition, as was demonstrated by their work Saturday, three-quarters in 1:21, with Royal Gift showing the way and appearing much the better of the two.

GAZINTA IN FAST WORKOUT.

J. C. Fletcher's El Jesmar and Bandolero have shown good speed in their morning works at Woodbine Park, and both are bred to go the route. Gazinta and Cheechako are also speedy. The former worked five-eighths Saturday in 1:03, the fastest move of the season.

Robert Newell's Greybourne has been burning up the track at Dufferin Park, and has also put on a lot of much needed weight since last year, when she was as lean as a rail fence, presumably from overwork. Greybourne was a good two-year-old and may develop into a high-class four-year-old.

The Thorncliffe Stable has a crack three-year-old in Captain Scott, but word comes from the farm that this colt will not be hurried, and he will not be a starter in the Plate unless he is fit. The stable, however, will be well represented by the four-year-old filly South Shore and the three-year-old Push Pin, both of which have shown enough quality to encourage the stable connections.

GOOD WORKS AT WOODBINE

TORONTO, Ont., May 1.—The track at Woodbine today was fast and weather fine, the most pleasing feature of the morning was the mile work-out of G. M. Hendrie's King's Plater Shoulder Arms. He covered the distance in 1:45⅗, the fastest of the season to date. The fractional time was 25, 50⅗, 1:17⅗. Ammunition started with Shoulder Arms, but only went an eighth. The Brenner candidate Puff Ball, wearing blinkers, led Royal Gift in a three-eighths gallop in 37, the first quarter in 23⅘. The Seagram candidate War Tank ran three-quarters in 1:15⅗. The Giddings two-year-old Honey Jewell looks like a real good colt. He galloped three-eighths in 36⅗. Game Scrapper ran the same distance in 36⅕. Royal Visitor worked five-eighths with Lieutenant Seas in 1:03⅗. Some Baby worked three-eighths in 38⅗ and Blarney Boy and Aunt Lin worked a half in 50⅗.

TO REBUILD KEMPTON PARK

MONTREAL, Que., May 1.—It has been announced by Leo Dandurand, one of the owners of the Kempton Park race track at Laprairie, that the plant would be rebuilt for this summer's racing. The recent windstorm that did damage to Mount Royal and Maisonneuve destroyed a number of the stables and a portion of the grandstand at Kempton Park. New stables, a new secretary's office, mutuel ring and grandstand will be erected for the meeting to be held there following the meeting at Delorimier Park early in July. The stable accommodations will be increased.

SECOND DAY AT LEXINGTON

Some Exciting Purse Racing Pleases the Spectators.

Brotherly Love Wins the Feature in Fast Time—Lady Madcap Shows Great Speed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 1.—John McPherson's Brotherly Love gave a splendid exhibition in the mile feature here, which he won by a small margin in the fast time of 1:38⅘ from some highly regarded ones after he had seemingly appeared a forlorn hope, as a result of his sluggish running during the earlier period of the race, which caused him to be far back. He settled fully in his stride during the last quarter and, charging on the leaders with a great rush, gained on them rapidly and, taking the lead, drew away decisively in the last sixteenth. Sir Thomas Kean was the early pacemaker and finished gamely, although closely pressed by Yoshimi, but won the place money by the margin of a nose. The showing of Yoshimi was highly encouraging to his connections and he now looms up as a real Derby candidate, for he raced impressively and covered the course in close to 1:39.

Another Derby candidate made an encouraging three-year-old debut when Kohn & Theisen's Megan won the third race unextended in the good time of 1:40. Evelyn White, which ran such a sparkling race on the opening day, was made an overwhelming favorite here, but her performance this afternoon was far below expectations. Alverida, an outsider, was in second place and Stonewall headed the other starters.

MINTO II. RETURNS TO RACING.

Desha Breckinridge's useful Lady Madcap, making her initial start for the season, annexed what was regarded as the secondary feature after a stubborn battle to dispose of the one-time crack Minto II., which today was making his re-entry into racing after an absence of nearly two years. Minto II. showed fine speed and made a pace that kept him well in front of Jim Daisy and Lady Madcap, but in the last sixteenth he began tiring and he should improve on the showing today.

Montfort Jones' representatives started off their Kentucky season auspiciously by scoring a double, winning both of the dashes for two-year-olds. Their first victory was achieved with Shamrock, a sturdy looking youngster by Rock View—Tuscan Red, that Earl Pool piloted. There was an element of luck in this colt's victory, for Mojave, the overwhelming favorite, unseated Garner right at the start, when the colt took fright and bumped into several of the other starters. Shamrock was lucky not to be in the jam and raced into the lead at once and gamely shook off Patricia and First Ward, his early challengers. The second Jones victory came in the sixth race when Old Top, which had received his early racing lessons at New Orleans, won after a mild drive with Poppye and Ailsie Vernor.

Uncle Velo was the only favorite that got home in the van of any field, and his victory, coming in the last race, was small consolation to the throng who had previously pinned their faith to favorites. Uncle Velo's victory was achieved in easy style, with Walnut Hall and Marse John the contenders.

DR. CARMEN DISAPPOINTMENT.

Dr. Carmen, the local favorite, was the first of three choices to offend when he finished far back in the initial race. Grayson was the victor here, although his success was somewhat of the flukey kind, as Archie Alexander ran as if best and would have won with a bit farther to go, after making up much ground.

Ginger's absence from the sixth race this afternoon was due to an injury sustained in his race of Saturday, which will probably keep him out of racing for the remainder of the spring and summer.

Track conditions were perfect for the sport and the ideal weather was a contributing factor toward the immense patronage this afternoon. The racing was wholesome and the jockeys on their strictest good behavior, showing fully that any infraction of racing rules would mean a lengthy suspension, if not a revocation of their licenses.

W. Harris succeeds William Snyder as assistant to starter A. B. Dade.

H. J. Knapp, accompanied by William Street, George H. Bull and others, arrived here today and will remain in these parts until after the running of the Kentucky Derby.

John H. Morris, owner of Bosque Bonita Farm and Stud, was among the visitors.

Frederick Johnson of New York was on

NEW YORK RACING NEAR BY

Metropolitan Season to Open at Jamaica on Wednesday.

Probable Contestants in the Race Selected for the 1922 Debut of Morvich.

(BY C. J. FITZ GERALD.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 1.—When Mr. Cassidy releases the barrier for the start of the Paumonok Handicap at Jamaica Wednesday afternoon the throng which will no doubt be present to inaugurate a season of sport that promises to be notable for its excellence will see something remarkable in the way of speed. This prediction is based on the way Morvich and other candidates for the $6,000 prize has been working. The speed shown by the fleet three-year-old recently, when he was timed a half in 46 seconds, will not be fast enough to shake off several of the prospective starters in that race. Careful, which recently showed three-eighths in 34 seconds at Havre de Grace, must be considered as one of the most dangerous rivals Morvich will have in the Paumonok. This fleet daughter of Wrack has grown into a four-year-old of beauty and she doesn't have to improve in the matter of speed in order to hold her own with anything on racing plates. She is a sure starter in the Paumonok and if Morvich outruns her the first part of it he will indeed be worthy of the title of speed marvel.

Another mare that doesn't have to take anybody's dust is Crocus, also considered a sure starter on Wednesday. This daughter of Broomstick was almost at the top of the sprinting tree at one time last year and nobody ever saw a more bloodlike four-year-old than she. Her dam, Inaugural, was that Voter mare which was so small during her three-year-old form in England that the late William C. Whitney asked trainer A. J. Joyner what he was going to do with her.

"Win a few races and then breed you some good race horses from her," was the reply of the expert, who has lived to see Inaugural the mother of Flags, Panoply, Crocus and Whiskaway, with the promise of other fleet ones to come, as she is still a young mare.

The older division includes a number of other fast ones that must be reckoned with in the Paumonok. Among those that are receiving a special preparation are Dunboyne, which won it in 1920 as a four-year-old. This horse was virtually unbeatable last fall after passing into the hands of Sam Hildreth and none of the horses at Rancocas wintered better than the son of Celt. Hildreth owns Dunboyne in partnership with P. A. Clark. What he will send to the post in the Rancocas colors is a matter of doubt, but he has Dominique, Krewer and Thunderclap, all sprinter of parts, as well as the three-year-olds Kai-Sang and Little Chief, from which to make a selection.

GLADIATOR IS READY.

Sandy McNaughton's main reliance will be Gladiator, though Georgie in the same stable is going great guns this spring. The former is about the best-looking big horse in training hereabouts, and he can run fast as well as carry weight. Another beautiful horse that has a high turn of speed and is a sure starter on Wednesday is Sennings Park, which belongs to the Westmount Stable, but is trained along with the Greentree horses by Scott Harlan. It is thought that Harlan will saddle either of the three-year-olds Galantman or Pirate Gold for the Greentree establishment in the same race.

Jim Evans is honing Smoke Screen and June Grass for Gifford Cochran. Both are noted for their speed. A. J. Joyner has the four-year-old last straw in the pink of condition for the Paumonok. Bowling, in the Oak Ridge string, and Column, owned by the Messrs. Schwartz, are a pair of speedy three-year-olds that have been working well at Belmont Park during the last week. Both are looked upon as Paumonok candidates.

The various superintendents of the Metropolitan courses are busy these bright spring days preparing for the season. At Belmont Park Mr. Pelz is putting the finishing touches on the new drive which will enable patrons of the club inclosure to reach the easterly end of the grandstand without getting in the pack of automobiles at the regular entrance. There are twin roads from the entrance to the landing stage. These are divided by a strip of turf adorned with fine old trees. The landing stage is reached by a wide curve which will effectually prevent congestion. The parking space for those using this new entrance, which will be one of the most appreciated features of Belmont Park, will be above and adjacent to the Turf and Field Club's home. Those who desire to leave the course early may walk to their machines in comfort. The fact that Hempstead avenue at this point is a double roadway is going to be helpful on big days.

Painters were putting the finishing touches on the Jamaica plant the last few days of the last week. This track was never so fast, nor the grounds so attractive as they are this spring.

G. L. GOODACRE'S PURCHASE

G. L. Goodacre, the Washington sportsman, made a lucky purchase when he gave J. K. L. Ross $100 for the English mare Necken last fall. This mare is a daughter of Sir Archibald and Badinage, brought to Canada by Mr. Ross in 1917. She was bred to Cudgel and at the time of her sale, for the trifling price, it was not thought she was in foal. She recently gave birth to a lusty colt and Mr. Ross has been unsuccessfully trying to buy her back from Mr. Goodacre.

$72,500 BLUE ENSIGN FAILS

LONDON, England, April 14.—Lord Glanely's $72,500 yearling Blue Ensign, by The Tetrarch—Blue Tit, by Wildfowler, has been turned out and will not be trained again. He may be used as a sire. Blue Ensign was a Sledmere product of 1919, couldn't be trained as a two-year-old and behaved and ran disgracefully in the Craven Stakes at Newmarket a few days ago. The colt had grown into a heavy topped ungamely horse and a sulker.

$2 mutuels paid, Lady Madcap, $5.70 straight, $2.90 place, $2.40 show; Minto II., $2.80 place, $2.60 show; Jim Daisy, $2.90 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Lady Madcap, 185 to 100 straight, 45 to 100 place, 20 to 100 show; Minto II., 40 to 100 place, 30 to 100 show; Jim Daisy, 45 to 100 show.

Winner—Br. f, by Dick Finnell—Affable, by Hastings (trained by S. Chenault; bred by Mr. Thomas C. McDowell).

Went to post at 3:48. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. LADY MADCAP was saved under restraint for the first half and, moving up with a rush when straightened out in the stretch, passed MINTO II. in the last sixteenth. MINTO II. showed the most speed and set a fast pace for five-eighths before tiring and will improve. JIM DAISY raced well, but tired in the stretch. FURBELOW was gaining at the end. WAR PRIZE ran well.

†Mutuel field. Time, 24, 49. Track fast.

$2 mutuels paid, Old Top, $12.00 straight, $6.80 place, $5.30 show; Poppye, $14.80 place, $8.90 show; Ailsie Vernor, $8.70 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Old Top, 500 to 100 straight, 240 to 100 place, 165 to 100 show; Poppye, 640 to 100 place, 345 to 100 show; Ailsie Vernor, 335 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. c, by Theo. Cook—Oseetah, by Ornament (trained by K. Spence; bred by Mr. Hal Price Headley).

Went to post at 4:58. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. OLD TOP raced into close contention with a rush soon after the start and, finishing gamely, outstayed POPPYE. The latter had to race wide on the turns and, closing a gap, finished with a rush. AILSIE VERNOR stood a hard drive resolutely. HUGHES GRAHAM had no mishaps and tired after racing into second place. MARJORIE WOOD set a fast early pace, but dropped back in the last sixteenth. DEARIE tired badly.

Scratched—61438 Belle Amie, 109; 59553 Boog-a-Boo, 105; 60587 Prince of Umbria, 112; 61438 Kennmare, 105; Miss Leighton, 104; Tokihime, 107; Anna Tod, 109.

Overweights—Poppye, 1 pound.

61457 SEVENTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (April 25, 1921—1:42⅘—3—103.) Purse $1,300. 4-year-olds and upward. Claiming. Net value to winner $1,000; second, $200; third, $100.

CHANCE TO ACQUIRE STARS

(SPECIAL CABLEGRAM.)

LONDON, England, May 1.—Sir Ernest Paget's Paragon, a five-year-old bay horse, by Radium—Quintessence, by St. Frusquin, has been retired from racing and unless sold to an individual in the meantime will be put up at auction at Newmarket July 2. The horse is still perfectly sound and will undoubtedly be in demand as a sire, because of his rich blood lines.

Craig an Eran, Lord Astor's four-year-old bay colt, by Sunstar—Maid of the Mist, has also been retired from the turf and placed in the "for sale" list. If he is not sold he will join the stallion Buchan at Lord Astor's farm. Bookings for 1923 service to mares by Craig an Eran will carry the proviso that they are subject to cancellation if the horse leaves England.

Both of these horses have been prominent factors in English racing. Craig an Eran was one of the short-priced starters in the Epsom Derby last year, but failed to win it. He finished second to Humorist. Paragon gave the American jockey George Archibald his first victory in England when he won the City and Suburban at Epsom April 19. Craig an Eran never recovered from the jarring which he suffered in the running of the Eclipse Stakes last year.

SANFORD HORSES DO WELL

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 1.—The eighteen horses which Hollie Hughes is preparing for John Sanford at Aqueduct are showing fine progress in their training work. Snob II. and Serenader, the stable's leading three-year-olds, are both picture horses, probably the best looking thoroughbreds which have been seen on New York courses in a decade. Both have filled out remarkably and are nearly perfect in conformation.

The horses were worked in three sets Wednesday morning. The older horses were put through their paces early, followed by the six two-year-old colts, Atherstone, Aragon, Dalby, Charlton, Glentilt and Kirkaldy. Atherstone, Dalby and Glentilt were sent a half mile in 51. Charlton and Kirkaldy went the same distance in 53. Aragon was sent along at a canter.

Segovia, Lacerta, Deviniere, Barcelona and Balmacara, the five fillies in the juvenile division, were sent a half mile.

AFTER THE TORONTO CUP

The great Exterminator has been entered in the Toronto Cup, to be run at the Woodbine Park spring meeting. Exterminator has won the Toronto Autumn Cup twice, in 1920 and 1921, and will now try for the spring feature.

NAME MONTREAL OFFICIALS

MONTREAL, Que., May 1.—At a meeting of the Quebec Breeders and Racing Association held Thursday afternoon racing officials were appointed for the opening of the local season. The first meeting under the auspices of the Quebec Breeders' Association will open on Saturday, May 6, at Maisonneuve Park. The second meeting will be held at Mount Royal Park, starting on May 20, after which there will be a layoff until after the meetings at Blue Bonnets, Dorval and Ottawa. The Quebec Breeders' and Racing Association meeting will be resumed at Delorimier Park on June 26.

Applications for stabling room have been received from a number of horsemen who raced at the Bowie and Havre de Grace meetings. The first consignment of these horses will arrive in Montreal on Monday.

The following officials were appointed: Presiding steward, representing the Quebec Breeders' and Racing Association, W. J. Morrison; stewards, W. W. Lyles and E. C. St. Pierre; placing judge, Charles Campeau; clerk of the scales, S. Bender; racing secretary, Charles Campeau; paddock judge, Dr. F. W. Ashe; starter, Edward Tribe; timers, H. Lavigne and A. Laberge.

SMALL AQUEDUCT STABLES

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 1.—Among the smaller stables now training at the Aqueduct course are the A. R. Lawson, W. Egan, T. Tault and F. Weir horses. W. S. House has three horses for Mr. Lawson: Sweep By, br. c, 3, by Sweep—Iridescence, by Peter Pan; Castleton, b. c, 3, by Sweep—Belle of Arcadia, by Plaudit, and Victor S., b. g, 5, by Sweep—Victoria M., by Goldspinner.

Trainer Egan is preparing two two-year-olds, Mistletoe, a bay filly by Zeus—Yuletree, and Kennesaw, a bay colt by Magic II.—Carpathia. Tault has Mystery, the bay colt, by Magic II.—Carisbrooke Castle.

Weir will send his Kentucky Derby winner, Old Rosebud, now eleven years old, back to racing this season. The veteran is in charge of a caretaker pending the arrival of his owner from Havana.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Sandy McNaughton has Audacious in splendid condition and the big sprinter will probably be seen under colors on opening day in the Paumonok Handicap.

Secretary Earlocker of the Westchester Association has completed the compilation of the program book for the Belmont Park meeting. It will be issued May 4.

Sidney Bender has been appointed clerk of the scales at all the tracks under the jurisdiction of the Quebec Breeders' Association and will leave Baltimore for Montreal shortly.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS

Jockey C. Lang continues on his winning way and is rapidly gaining on the incapacitated Huntamer for the leadership of American riders. Lang rode eight winners last week, bringing his score to thirty-nine for the month of April. With three major tracks in operation this week more riding opportunities will be presented and with the return to the saddle of nearly all the best jockeys in the country the competition will be keener and changes in the standing of the leaders will come quite frequently. For the first four months of the year the records of the thirty leaders are as follows:

hand, as was also Col. Andrew Vennie, who came from New York after a severe illness from which he has recovered.

The annual meeting of members of the Thoroughbred Horse Association will be held in the ballroom of the Phoenix Hotel next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Acting for his own account and that of Harry Payne Whitney, Mose Goldblatt this morning sold Reliability and Straight Shooter to H. Neusteter, who will ship them to race at Maple Heights, Ohio.

E. R. Bradley has decided on sending By Gosh to race in the Preakness Stakes. He will be in charge of trainer William Hurley. Busy American and Bet Mosie will be the Bradley representatives in the Kentucky Derby.

The presence of W. Jarrell astride Furbelow marked his first return to saddle work since his fall at Wheeling, W. Va., last April, where he sustained injuries that left him badly lamed.

Al Austin was advised today of the death of Garden City, owned by Charles Irby. The horse at the recent Tijuana meeting had won eight of his ten starts. He died at Maple Heights.

Upon the recommendation of starter Dade the stewards have declared that no entries of the horses Our Dear and Columbia Tenn will be received. Both horses are barred because of incorrigibility at the post. United Verde has been placed on the schooling list to correct his post habits.

Jockey Garner was lucky in escaping with a shaking up when he was unseated from Mojave soon after the start in the second race.

married on Saturday to Miss Helen Stone of Havre de Grace at Elkton, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark have taken a house in the Green Spring Valley for the Pimlico meeting.

Steve Lawler will ship the Allies Stable of twenty horses from here to Canada and campaign on the Canadian circuits.

Sheridan Clark is accepting applications for stall reservations for the Connaught Park and Dorval meetings.

Edward F. Seagram, owner of a pretentious Canadian stable, was a visitor today from his home in Waterloo.

John Lumsden arrived from Ottawa to witness the running of the afternoon's racing.

W. P. O'Meara, manager of the J. K. L. Ross breeding farm at Vercheres, Quebec, was also a visitor.

The first claim of the meeting came with the running of the fourth race when Sam Louis boosted Lady Boss to $3,100, at which figure he secured her.

Starter Milton suspended jockeys C. Lang and H. Thomas for three days for disobedience at the barrier in the Merchants' Handicap.

HARRY SINCLAIR'S SON ILL

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, May 1.—Harry M. Sinclair, the owner of the powerful Rancocas Stable, trained by S. C. Hildreth, left here today on a special train for New York, where he was called by the serious illness of his son.

A. C. ROSS——SPECIALS

Just returned from opening day at Lexington, where all arrangements have been made to handle some of the best betting propositions ever sent out.

Mr. Horse Player, if you are loser; if you have played information before and are disgusted with same, then get in touch with a man that has had 18 years' experience in the horse game; one that is personally acquainted with and has the confidence of many owners and trainers. I send out no scratched horses, but every horse will be well meant and bet on by the stable and their connections. Rush me your name and address with one dollar to guarantee telegraph charges and good faith; then you and your friends wire me the winnings of a $10 straight play the next day after race, less the one dollar sent at first. All horses sent out filed with Daily Racing Form by 12 m. day of race.
